FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Conflicts are an inevitable part of our society. Their origins can be political, economic or social; their outcomes physically and emotionally impact cities and countries, economies and societies; we can't avoid them. It's the moment to discuss the consequences and how design can be a useful tool to address them.

The tenth issue of the quarterly design journal MAS Context, CONFLICT, is already out. All the content is available for free at www.mascontext.com, where you can order a printed copy of the journal from Lulu and download the electronic version.

Contributors to this issue include Jonathan Andrew, Christopher Baker, Vladimir Belogolovsky, David Garcia Studio, dpr-barcelona, Peter Eisenman, Thomas Hillier, Alex Lehnerer, Nora Niasari, OMNIBUS, Mika Savela, Simon Scheithauer, Cameron Sinclair and Urban-Think Tank.

MAS Context is a quarterly journal created by MAS Studio that addresses issues that affect the urban context. Its aim is to provide a comprehensive view of a topic by the active participation of people from different fields and different perspectives. It instigates the debate.
