FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The urban conditions around us are constantly changing. With a faster or slower SPEED, the built environment is transformed as it does the way we experience and engage with it. In this issue we will be looking at the pace in which physical and social changes happen and the consequences and opportunities available.

The eleventh issue of the quarterly design journal MAS Context, CONFLICT, is already out. All the content is available for free at www.mascontext.com, where you can order a printed copy of the journal from Lulu and download the electronic version.

Contributors to this issue include Andrew Bush, Candy Chang, Michael Chrisman, Andrew Clark, André Corrêa, Brendan Crain, Design With Company, José María Ezquiaga, Antón García-Abril, Iker Gil, Juan Herreros, Stephen Killion, Camilla Nielsson, Jeffrey T. Schnapp, Troy Conrad Therrien and Josef Schulz who is the guest cover photographer.

MAS Context is a quarterly journal created by MAS Studio that addresses issues that affect the urban context. Its aim is to provide a comprehensive view of a topic by the active participation of people from different fields and different perspectives. It instigates the debate.
